

World Cup this week.

June 26 to July 5 — the knockout rounds, and where to watch in the Springs.

The 2026 World Cup is in the US, Canada and Mexico. No Colorado host city, so plan to watch on TV — here's the week by date.

Watch local

TOP PICK

The Brit Pub

Football pub | by Weidner Field

Downtown by Weidner Field, Colorado Springs, CO 80903

Football-first downtown pub showing every World Cup match, with a dedicated tournament menu and buckets of beer.

Tip: Best local spot to catch a game; confirm hours for early kickoffs.

→ Apple Maps → Google Maps

Thu–Sat · Jun 26–27 — Group stage finale

The last group matches decide the final knockout spots. All 12 groups wrap by Saturday.

Sun · Jun 28 — Round of 32 begins

Single-elimination starts (Match 73 onward).

Jun 28 – Jul 3 — Round of 32

16 matches across the week — roughly two to three per day.

Sat · Jul 4 — Round of 16 begins

Independence Day football. The Round of 16 runs July 4–7.

Jul 4 – 5 — Round of 16 continues

More last-16 ties through the weekend.

Good to know

Colorado is not a 2026 host city, so this is a watch-on-TV week — matches air on FOX / FS1 (English) and Telemundo (Spanish). The exact matchups and Mountain-Time kickoffs lock once group play ends Saturday June 27; check FOX Sports for times.