

Dive Bars

The real ones in Colorado Springs · Summer 2026

---

Downtown & Central

Triple Nickel Tavern

112 N Nevada Ave · Downtown

The classic COS dive. Pool tables, cheap drinks, regulars who have been coming for decades. Cash-friendly.

Gasoline Alley

720 S Nevada Ave · (719) 635-5333

Biker bar energy. Strong pours, jukebox, no pretension. The kind of place where nobody asks what you do.

Whiskey Dick's

1623 S Nevada Ave

The name says it all. Cheap shots, pool, sports on TV. Unpretentious.

Murphy's Bar

122 E Pikes Peak Ave · Downtown

Irish dive. Dark, small, cheap. Good for a quiet drink before anything else.

Old Colorado City & Westside

Benny's

2428 W Colorado Ave · OCC

The oldest bar in COS. 70+ years. Longest active liquor license in the city. Dark, divey, legendary.

TIP: This is the one. Go at least once.

Vultures

2400 W Colorado Ave · OCC

Next to Benny's. Slightly less divey. Good beer selection for a dive. Patio.

Neighborhood dives

Hatch Cover

2730 S Academy Blvd · (719) 392-3880

Southeast side. Navy/military crowd. Pool tables, darts, cheap pitchers. Feels like 1987.

Robin Hood Pub

121 E Fillmore St · (719) 633-0499

Neighborhood dive near downtown. Cash bar, strong drinks, regulars only vibe.

O'Furry's Pub

6925 N Academy Blvd

North side dive. Karaoke nights, cheap drinks, casual crowd.

Willie's South

1865 S Circle Dr

Southside institution. Pool, darts, cheap beer. The kind of place your dad would drink at.

Blue Iguana

3940 Palmer Park Blvd

East side. Mexican food + dive bar combo. Margaritas and pool tables.

Bottles & Taps

1517 S Tejon St · Ivywild area

Bottle shop with dive bar energy. Good beer selection but still cheap and unpretentious.
